DESCRIPTION OF PROBLEM
Location of engine control module processor. Ford and Chevy service centers cannot find the location.
RECOMMENDED SOLUTION
The P30 Chevy chassis module hook-up is located on the interior of the motorhome on the steering column. The F53 Ford chassis module hook-up is located on the driver side of the engine. The engine cover must be removed to reach the hook-up. This information is for authorized Ford and Chevy service centers for perform the work. This should help if you receive any calls on the location of the module from these service centers.
